18 October 2024

We have had a creative time in school this week. Class 1 have been investigating Rock and Roll music, learning songs, watching clips of classic rock and roll and developing their own responses and movement, including using the parachute. Class 2 have been investigating silent movies (and the live music which was used to accompany them). They have acted out their own mini silent movie which they will be creating the music and sound effects for next week. We are looking forward to seeing the final piece which we will be sure to share with you!

Despite the variable weather the nursery and Reception children still enjoyed their Monday afternoon forest school work and the younger class 1 children followed this up with outdoor themed maths work in the classroom during the week.

Pub Quiz for our school

The white Swan is holding a pub quiz night for school on Thursday 21st November. There is only 10 tables available so people will need to book ASAP.

Please contact julieedmison@gmail.com to book your table!

Art Club news

The children have been designing and naming their own made up pets in art club with Olive. Today the children who took part have been awarded with a certificate and some stickers for their designs. There will be a letter in your child's bag for the opportunity for your child's artwork to be published. You can give permission online and the deadline is 1st November.

Dates for your diary
